On the Historic Register, the Penthouse was the first Theatre in the Round (arena) built in the United States. This 160 seat theater was completely renovated in 1991 when it was moved from its original south campus location. It also houses a rehearsal hall, faculty offices, and prop storage and is located near Hutchinson Hall.