DXARTS Alumnus Tivon Rice receives two major grants from the Dutch Cultural Fund for Architecture, Design, and Digital Culture

Submitted by Ewa Trebacz on January 9, 2019 - 11:26pm

DXARTS Alumnus Tivon Rice has received two major grants from Stimuleringsfonds, the Dutch Cultural Fund for Architecture, Design, and Digital Culture. Totaling €25,000, these awards will accelerate Rice's work with experimental image making and digital narratives. Through the fund's “Space for Talent” award, Rice will also spend 2019 collaborating with Delft University of Technology to research Machine Learning/A.I. systems for image, sound, and text.

https://goo.gl/cUQYTm
tivonrice.com
@tivonrice
@stimuleringsfonds
@tudelft

People Involved:  Tivon Rice
News Category:  Alumni

Environment Built for Absence (an unofficial/artificial sequel to J.G. Ballard's High Rise), by Tivon Rice, 2018